 It is 1995 and it has been a good year for WCSB. I personally feel we are offering a greater variety of programming now more than ever. We have expanded the

Who are my and who are we?
 We are African regardless of color, Creed or religion. African history isn't back and everyone of us has that part of our humble beginning.
 So, no matter where you are from we hope you're the human kind, you're an African! African! African! African!

CounterSpin

Tired of Tweedle-dee, Tweedle-dum Reporting? Tune into CounterSpin

A weekly radio show produced by FAIR, the national media watch group, CounterSpin exposes and highlights:

- ❖ biased and inaccurate news
- ❖ key censored stories
- ❖ press/state cronyism
- ❖ disinformation, propaganda and spin control
- ❖ interference by corporate sponsors and owners
- ❖ the growing media clout of right-wing Christian fundamentalists
- ❖ gaffes and goofs by America's leading TV pundits
- ❖ sexist and racist media assumptions
- ❖ the corporate take-over of public television
- ❖ attacks on free speech in the music, entertainment and news industries
- ❖ tough, independent journalism that cuts against the media grain

...tens now a Midwestern mayor phoned ... after the show to describe refugees huddled in churches and mobs in the streets. It was a typical response, and psychologists would chew over it for years to come. But one thing was made instantly clear that night: radio was a far more powerful force in America than anyone would have guessed.

Thank goodness there's a big, fragrant ham
