SPRING 2006 PROGRAM GUIDE

Greetings Diverse Clevelanders,

Welcome to WCSB's Spring 2006 Program Guide, your map to the underworld of Cleveland radio. Cleveland's college radio is one of the best things this city has going for it, and all four of Cleveland's college radio stations are collectively working together again as the College Radio Coalition. Today, it consists of members from Cleveland State's WCSB 89.3, Case Western's WRUW 91.1, John Carroll's WJCU 88.7, and Baldwin Wallace's WBWC 88.3. The website www.clevelandcollegeradio.com should be functional soon, so you can check it out when you get the chance. And if you haven't noticed the changes in our own website, www.wcsb.org, be sure to take a gander. Bart's been hard at work keeping it current, so a special thanks to him.

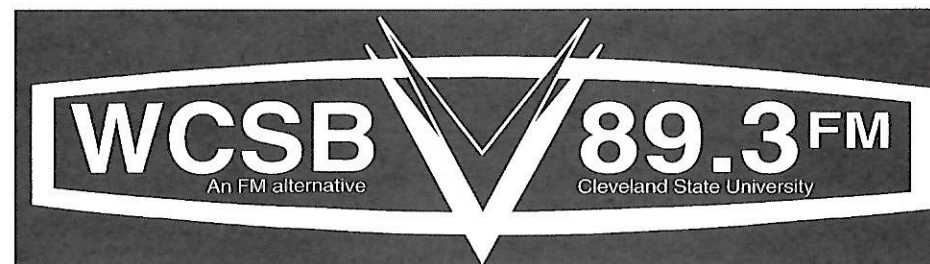

2006 marks WCSB's 30th anniversary on the air, and while it's easy to just sit back and marvel at our past accomplishments (we used to broadcast only to CSU's cafeteria!), we must look forward to the possibilities the future holds.

Today, WCSB is in better shape than ever. Radiothon 2005 was our most successful telethon yet, and thanks goes to all the businesses and organizations that donated premiums for making it so successful. When you visit these places, be sure to thank them for their support of innovative radio in Cleveland. And most of all, thanks to you, our appreciative listeners. You are the reason we are able to provide you with the independent voice your ears deserve.

On June 17, 2006, WCSB will again host Open Air in Market Square, where our favorite local bands take the stage and WCSB's own DJs and Selectors spin morning selections. A series of other events are in the planning stages too. So you'll just have to keep your dial locked on 89.3 fm for further details.

Over & Out!
